Boralex Announces Two Appointments to the Executive Committee

Montreal, September 9, 2019 — Patrick Decostre, Vice President and Chief Operating Officer of Boralex ("Boralex" or the "Corporation") (TSX: BLX), is pleased to announce two appointments to Boralex's Executive Committee: Marie-Josée Arsenault as Vice President, Talent and Culture, and Julie Cusson as Vice President, Public and Corporate Affairs. These appointments were announced on September 4, 2019.

"Over the past several years, the energy sector has been undergoing fundamental changes that require a strong capacity for global reflection on our business context, an ability to put forward projects that seek the highest social acceptability, the acquisition of new talent and organizational development in order to carry out our business plan. In this context, Marie-Josée and Julie are definitely the most qualified individuals to fill these strategic positions," said Mr. Decostre.

Marie-Josée Arsenault: humane leadership

With more than 25 years of experience in human resources, Marie-Josée Arsenault joined Boralex in 2015 after 20 years of service at Cascades. She held the position of Corporate Director, Human Resources at the time of her appointment and had developed extensive experience in talent acquisition and employee engagement. Her vision, leadership and expertise for coordinating teams have been instrumental in achieving Boralex's employer brand. In the role of Vice President, Talent and Culture, Marie-Josée will be responsible for continuing to drive the company's transformation toward a talent-based model, focused on our vital workforce.

"I'm extremely pleased to take up this new challenge with the human resources team and passionate colleagues who care about the company's success. The teams' skills and commitment will be essential to achieving our business goals," said Ms. Arsenault.

Julie Cusson: inspirational leadership

With more than 15 years of experience in the energy sector, Julie was appointed Director of Public Affairs and Communications at Boralex in 2016. In this capacity, she developed and consolidated the synergy between Boralex's public affairs and communications resources, in addition to increasing the company's visibility among its various audiences. In June 2019, she was given the mandate of coordinating the internal deployment of strategic review. Her diligence, energy, courage and diverse skills make Julie an outstanding manager whose top priority is collaboration. As Vice President, Public and Corporate Affairs, Julie will continue fulfilling all of her mandates, which will be divided between four areas of expertise: government affairs, organizational and corporate communication as well as the internal deployment of strategic review.

"I look forward to undertaking this new mandate surrounded by an experienced team. My top priority is to achieve our business goals in collaboration with all of Boralex's stakeholders," said Ms. Cusson.
